

Plate 2. The time-varying amplitude spectra using a 20 day window indicates the frequency at which the energy is occurring. The 20 day window provides a frequency resolution of 0.05 cpd. The two horizontal lines in each plot are at the 1 cpd and 1.15 cpd frequencies. Most of the energy is at a frequency slightly less than the local inertial frequency.